RESPONSIBLE TO: Education & Employment Department Director

CLASSIFICATION: Professional/Management, Regular, Full-Time

LOCATION: The Klamath Tribes
501 Chiloquin Boulevard
Chiloquin OR 97624

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of the position is to direct and manage the Re-Employment by Design (RED) Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) Project. This combined position consists of a Program Manager and a VR Services Counselor. The RED Program Manager will oversee and ensure the mission and administration of the RED Project which is to provide culturally appropriate VR services to eligible Tribal members living within the Service Delivery Area (SDA). The VR Services Counselor will provide services to empower VR consumers to retain, regain, or obtain gainful employment consistent with their strengths, resources, priorities, concerns, abilities and informed choices.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Manage the RED Program which is a federally funded Section 121 Project (American Indian/Alaska Native Vocational Rehabilitation Program) in accordance with all rules and regulations of the funding agency.
2. Exercise the full range of supervisory duties for the Re-Employment by Design (RED) Program. Develop overall work plan, establish work schedules and priorities and assign and review work. Discuss with staff the progress of the work and problem areas as they arise. Recommend employee status and other personnel changes. Approve leave. Evaluate performance. Identify training needed and ensure that training opportunities are provided. Resolve complaints or minor grievances, and advise employees on matters related to less than adequate performance. Keep employees informed of management policies and goals.
3. Write and submit continuation grant proposal to ensure continued funding for the VR program. Research outside funding resources and contracts for project expansion to improve vocational rehabilitation services to consumers and other related community services.
4. Plan, develop and implement an annual Tribal community awareness program that will provide information about the RED Project and an awareness of disabilities, challenges, barriers and a building of trust in the Tribal community.
5. Prepare reports, to include but not limited to, the Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA) "Annual Reporting Form for the American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Services Grant Program, RSA: Final Performance and Financial Report", Monthly Program Activity Report and submit for review and approval of Department Director.
6. Attend regularly scheduled meetings, to include but not limited to, state and regional VRS meetings or trainings, monthly teleconferences with RSA and the 121 Projects nationwide to discuss issues pertinent to American Indian Vocational Rehabilitation Programs. Meetings may be held throughout the state of Oregon or the United States; therefore driving and/or flying may be a necessary part of the position.
7. Develop and monitor annual budget to meet the project's goals and objectives. This includes but is not limited to maintenance of the program cuff accounts.

8. Develop, implement and maintain the procedures and policies for RED VR program according to federal, state and tribal regulations.
9. Review and approve consumer case files to ensure compliance with Federal regulations.
10. Collaborate with, but not exclusive of, other Tribal VR Programs, Oregon State agencies, national and local agencies providing services to people with disabilities. Ensure an adequate scope of comprehensive services are readily available VR consumers.
11. Conduct in-take interviews with applicants for the purpose of establishing rapport and building a positive working relationship between the Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) Counselor and the applicant. Collect information vital in determining eligibility for the consumer to receive culturally appropriate VR services, e.g., medical and employment histories, educational background, vocational interests, etc.
12. Determine whether the applicant is eligible to receive VR services and is employable based on the applicant's diagnostic evaluation by a qualified medical or mental health professional.
13. Interpret the TVR Procedures and Policies Manual, as well as the Oregon State VR Policies and Procedures, for the consumer as they relate to the provision of VR services and to the consumer.
14. Evaluate the functional and vocational capacities of the applicant. Determine the most appropriate development of an Individualized Plan for Employment (IPE) that establishes a suitable employment outcome consistent with the consumer's disability, needs and job interests. Provide counseling, guidance and a job search that leads to job placement for the consumer. The VR Counselor also provides information concerning post-employment services to the consumer after job placement has taken place.
15. Coordinate and collaborate comprehensive services that maximize the impact of the cost for the consumer with other Federal, State and Tribal agencies to meet the requests of the consumer during the vocational rehabilitation process.
16. Interpret the interrelated issues of disabilities and their impact socially and emotionally on the consumers to enable them to attain a better understanding of themselves in relation to their disabilities, family members, environment, and employment opportunities.
17. Establish and maintain an employer contact file for job development and job placement for consumers. Determine the need for financial assistance and provides for necessary maintenance and transportation allowances.

18. Work with potential employers concerning job analysis for consumers and assist with workplace modifications, the use of assistive technology and accessibility in the workplace.
19. May be required to transport clients to and from appointments as needed.
20. Must adhere to strict confidentiality guidelines concerning consumers, VR services and consumer information.
21. In accordance with the Klamath Tribes Juvenile Ordinance Title 2, Chapter 15.64 and General Council Resolution #2005-003, all Tribal staff are considered a Mandatory Reporter.
22. In addition to the Tribal Juvenile Ordinance and General Council Resolution, the Oregon Revised Statutes (ORS) 419B.010 identifies this position as having the duty to report child abuse.
