

ELDERS TRIP TO OREGON SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL

---

Saturday, October 28th, 2017

Angus Bowmer Theatre, 15 S. Pioneer Street,
Ashland, Oregon

Contact Rachel Miller, 541-783-2219 Ext. 174

The Klamath Tribes Community Services Department is hosting an Elders Trip (60 years+) to attend the last performance of the season, of “Off the Rails” play at the Angus Bowmer Theatre in Ashland, Oregon. Space is limited, call Rachel Miller at ext. 174, ASAP to reserve your spot and if needed, arrange for transportation – a wait list will also be maintained. The Department will provide a light morning snack, lunch at the Theatre, and dinner at Home Town Buffet.

About the Play

A sin to save a brother's life

Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show is in town holding auditions, and the regulars at the Stewed Prunes Saloon are hoping for a shot at stardom. But plans change when Momaday, a Pawnee teenager, is sentenced to hang for his forbidden love affair with an Irish-American girl. Captain Angelo, the presiding officer, won't budge . . . until he lays eyes on Momaday's sister, Isabel. This irreverent, subversive adaptation of Measure for Measure—described as “Blazing Saddles meets Shakespeare” and OSF's first play by a Native American writer—uses healthy doses of humor and music to illuminate the painful legacy of Indian boarding schools in the American West.

DRAFT ITINERARY

7:30 AM – Pick up elders in Chiloquin & Klamath Falls

9:45 AM – Depart from Klamath Falls

11:45 AM – Arrive in Ashland

12:00 PM – Lunch

12:30-1:00 PM – Prologue

1:30 PM – “Off the Rails” Performance (2.5 hours, including one intermission)

4:20 PM – Depart from Ashland

4:45 PM – Arrive at Home Town Buffet for Dinner

6:00 PM – Depart from Medford

7:45 PM – Arrive in Klamath Falls & transport elders home