POSITION OBJECTIVES

The Emergency Manager will work to coordinate Tribal and community resources to protect lives and preserve property, environmental and cultural resources through capacity building, mitigation, preparedness, training, education to ensure response to and recovery from all man-made and natural hazards that may impact the Tribal Community. The Emergency Manager will develop, implement and manage the emergency preparedness program and serve as the central emergency preparedness and response manager for the Tribe.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Coordinate and collaborate with all Tribal entities and departments to facilitate emergency management, planning and implementation.
2. Develop, implement, review and continuously update emergency response and protocol procedures for The Klamath Tribes.

3. Research and analyze Tribal Government needs to develop Tribal staff engagement, education, and training program goals and activities.
4. Develop, coordinate, and maintain plans and policies to improve the Tribe's emergency response capabilities.
5. Schedule, coordinate and lead Emergency Management Committee meetings and trainings; ensure minutes are kept and follow-up as needed.
6. Schedule, plan, and coordinate Tribal Emergency Management Community Volunteer meetings and trainings; ensure minutes are kept and follow-up as needed.
7. Lead the Emergency Management Committee, Tribal community members and other stakeholders in the review and updating of Tribal Emergency Management plans and documents, mutual aid agreements, needs lists, resource management documents, and hazard assessments.
8. Work with technical and non-technical people from Tribal, Federal, State and Local agencies and provide guidance to Tribal Leadership on emergency response, protocol and strategies.
9. Develop and maintain an inventory of emergency supplies, equipment and other items, resources and services that could be used during an emergency.
10. Participate on KTHFS Emergency Preparedness Team and Incident Management Team and act as a liaison on various committees, agencies and workgroups (Tribal, Federal, State, and County) as directed by Supervisor.
11. Meet with Tribal Council, Tribal management, Tribal staff and various agencies to resolve problems related to the coordination and/or implementation of the Tribe's Emergency Operations Plan (EOP).
12. Work to strengthen an understanding of Tribal Sovereignty and be solution based to meet the emergency management needs of the Tribal community.
13. Develop and manage the emergency preparedness budget.
14. Lead the development, administration, and submission of grant applications and reports as required by Tribal Government and granting agencies.
15. Track and submit routine reports on expenditures, receipts, and funds used for emergency management.

16. Attend meetings, conference, workshops and trainings related to emergency management to maintain compliance with grantor training requirements; learn new information, and develop and maintain working relationships with other emergency management personnel.
17. Draft, execute, and evaluate preparedness exercises for staff and community volunteers following National Incident Management guidelines.
18. Solicit and coordinate volunteers from employee groups and the Tribal community to provide support of the Tribe's goals during emergencies; solicit and train volunteers for support efforts in providing first aid, self-rescue teams, and supporting the Tribal emergency management program.
19. Assist in the development of functional emergency communications system procedures; maintain, organize and run an emergency operations center at an event-ready status.
20. Serve as point of contact for Safety Committee. Schedule, plan and coordinate Safety Committee Meetings.
21. The incumbent will be called upon to accomplish other tasks within their scope of work.
