POSITION: TANF INTENSIVE CASE MANAGER

RESPONSIBLE TO: TANF Program Manager

SALARY: Step Range: 15-34; Full Benefits
Salary Range: $39,327 - $68,961
Hourly Range: $18.91 - $33.15

CLASSIFICATION: Non-management, Regular, Full-time

LOCATION: The Klamath Tribes Administration
501 Chiloquin Blvd.
Chiloquin, OR 97624

BACKGROUND: P.L. 101-630

POSITION OBJECTIVES

The Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) Intensive Case Manager's primary purpose is to assist families with meeting their basic needs while learning to become self-supporting. Incumbent will work with individual families, to provide intensive case management services and maintain accurate, current records of services and progress.

The intensive Case Manager must have the ability to work with families in distress and demonstrate compassion while remaining objective about the needs of the families. The goal is to reduce the number of families who are dependent upon public assistance, increase the number of single parents completing education and training, increase child support services, and increase self-sufficiency. The Intensive Case Manager must be able to meet these goals while carrying a heavy case load.

This position will travel between Klamath Falls, Chiloquin, and other rural communities to serve Native Americans in Klamath County.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Establish, coordinate and maintain a collaborative working relationship with TANF participants, co-workers, contractors, general public, community resources and other agencies.
2. Respond in a timely manner to potential applicant questions regarding TANF benefits and claim procedures.
3. Determine TANF eligibility and initiate procedures to grant, modify, deny or terminate assistance or refer applicants to other agencies for assistance; interpret and explain program policies and procedures. Monitor the payment of benefits throughout the duration of the claim.
4. Provide assistance in obtaining child support through interviews and completed documentation, as required for child support enforcement.
5. Develop a case plan with individual families detailing the steps the family will take toward achieving their goals; plans may include participation in interagency case management.
6. Responsible for overseeing that participation rates are met according to the Klamath Tribes TANF Plan with accompanying documentation, and properly entered in the TAS database.
7. Determine intervention services to address the needs of family members such as, parenting, drug and alcohol abuse, criminal justice, domestic abuse, childcare, etc.; make all appropriate referrals.
8. Interview, clients to ascertain employability and identify barriers to employment by assessing the participant's skills, strengths, and work history.
9. Insure child care reimbursement(s) are entered accurately and issued in a timely manner. Monitor the payment of benefits throughout the duration of the claim.
10. Initiate frequent interaction with clients by telephone, office visits, and home visits to continually monitor case plan progress.
11. Case plans will be updated every three months for families in participation status; update at six months for caretaker relative and exempt cases.
12. Monitor and maintain case record files on individual client achievements and insure applications are renewed every six (6) months with a current application.
13. For individuals who may qualify for SSI, assist with referral and SSI application processes; monitor progress of claim.
14. Refer clients for job skills training classes, which will include filling out applications, resume'/cover letter writing, interviewing, etc.

15. Identify work ready individuals for a full-time job placement; make the appropriate referrals for the barrier interview and determination of placement.
16. Identify and utilize resources that assist families with school age children that are "at risk" for learning or behavioral problems. Serve as an advocate with the parents when addressing school concerns with the children.
17. Provide case management services to teen parents through programs designed to address life skills and high school completion or equivalency.
18. Provide transition services and referrals to local resources, support services, and employment retention services for families who are in transitional status.
19. Access multiple complicated database systems with current, accurate client information.
20. Prepare monthly reports, as requested by the TANF Program Manager.
21. The incumbent will be called upon to accomplish other tasks within their scope of work.
