

The following actions are violations of The Klamath Tribes Fish and Wildlife code.

These and other violations can result in fines and/or penalties. Consult the codes or inquire at The Klamath Tribes Natural Resource Department.

- A. Not returning expired, unused, and filled tags before new tags are issued (6.02 (d)).
- B. Hunting from Aircraft.
- C. Hunting while under the influence of alcohol or drugs.
- D. Taking big game with traps or snares.
- E. Taking game fish with nets or explosives.
- F. Obtaining tribal I.D. card or big game tags using false or misleading information.
- G. Selling of wildlife meat and/or game fish. (See Sec. 10.01 (g) of the Klamath Wildlife Code)
- H. Wasting wildlife or game fish.
- I. Giving false information to the judicial committee.
- J. Hunting deer, elk, and/or antelope with dogs.
- K. Failure to exercise proper parental supervision.
- L. Transferring Treaty permits or big game tags except as specifically permitted by section 6.02 (b) of the wildlife codes.
- M. Aiding any person who is not eligible to harvest wildlife except when such person is legally licensed to do so, or not in violation of pertinent regulations (10.01 (L)).

During the hunt, all tribal hunters must possess their official tribal identification card (issued by the tribal enrollment office) Failure to abide by this Requirement indicates the hunter is not exercising their treaty hunting rights and is therefore subject to Oregon state hunting regulations and penalties.
