CLASSIFICATION: Professional-Management, Regular, Full-Time

LOCATION: The Klamath Tribes
501 Chiloquin Blvd.
Chiloquin, OR 97624

BACKGROUND: N/A

POSITION OBJECTIVES

The primary purpose of this position is to perform professional forestry work in support of the Forestry Program. This position emphasizes field related activities and planning support to the Forest Manager. The Forester I will work under the direction of the Forest Manager on issues relating to Forest Management, Natural Resources and Special Forest Use concerns of the Tribes. At least half of the incumbent's time is field oriented.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Lead all project pre-sale activities, including unit designation, acreage determination, mapping, etc.
2. Design and implement timber sale cruises.
3. Write silvicultural prescriptions.

4. Implement forest restoration projects and activities.
5. Prepare timber appraisals for a variety of timber products.
6. Assist the Forest Manager in implementing the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) between the U.S. Forest Service and the Klamath Tribes, for all actions, projects or issues originating from the Fremont-Winema National Forest that may affect Tribal resources, rights or interests.
7. Participate in the NEPA planning process as assigned by the Forest Manager.
8. Monitor environmental impacts of forest restoration activities.
9. Provide direct supervision to department staff to ensure adherence to Tribal and department standards, deadlines, and procedures; correct errors or problems, as identified. Review records or reports pertaining to activities to monitor work activities and evaluate staff performance.
10. Prepare and issue work schedules, deadlines, and duty assignments for department staff.
11. Evaluate employees' job performance and conformance to regulations and recommend appropriate personnel actions. Discuss job performance with employees to identify causes and issues and work on resolving problems.
12. Make recommendations to management concerning such issues as staffing decisions or procedural changes.
13. Train forestry staff on the concepts and application of the Tribal forest management plan.
14. Develop and implement on-the-job training plans for subordinates and temporary employees.
15. Maintain accurate and orderly records and files.
16. Provide reports and correspondence for the Forest Manager as required or requested.
17. The incumbent will be called upon to accomplish other tasks within their scope of work.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

Work is performed under the general direction of the Forest Manager. The Forest Manager makes assignments based on Tribal goals and current direction. Tasks performed may be specific to existing management direction or with regard to Tribal cultural and subsistence resource requirements. The employee plans and carries out the successive steps of work plans and assignments independently within existing policies, instructions, previous training, and professional experience. Major or new issues are referred to the supervisor who is available for advice and assistance in unprecedented or unusual situations. Incumbent must display a high degree of initiative in carrying out his or her duties.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES

Knowledge of the ecological requirements of Tribal subsistence resources and ability to quantify ecological threshold using appropriate tools, education and professional training.

Computer skills required to operate work processing software and spreadsheets, for data analysis. Geographic Information System software experience, important.

Ability to learn the boundaries of the former reservation and adjacent areas that impact Tribal resources.

Ability to understand and interpret the Klamath Forest Management Plan.

Knowledgeable with, or ability and desire to learn, National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) planning and process.

Knowledgeable with, or ability and desire to learn, Stewardship contract and agreement processes.

Must have good public relations and interpersonal relationship skills. The incumbent will meet with a variety of individuals in a professional manner, using tact, diplomacy, mature judgment, while providing Tribal perspective.

Ability to perform work and accomplish tasks following specific procedures and in accordance with established policies, procedures, professional practices and scientific accuracy.

Ability to communicate with both written and oral skills. This requires above average knowledge of grammar.

Ability to supervise employees by assigning and reviewing work.

Ability to work in inclement weather and rugged terrain.
