POSITION OBJECTIVES

The Office Manager is responsible for the administrative and business support activities of the Culture & Heritage Department. The work includes various responsibilities involving different and unrelated processes and methods, requiring a wide range of administrative, secretarial, and supervisory skills. This position requires someone who can work independently with minimal supervision to ensure timely, accurate and efficient work flow in accordance with office policies and standards. The work often involves highly confidential matters and the pressure of deadlines.

This position is a part of the Culture & Heritage Department and serves as a principal assistant to the Culture & Heritage Director. Due to the nature of the supervisor's function, this position requires close cooperation and coordination with a variety of contacts including other tribal personnel, tribal officials, government agencies, professional associations, and the general public.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Perform a variety of secretarial functions for the Culture & Heritage Director. This includes typing and reproducing routine and assigned correspondence and documents from handwritten or rough draft. Correspondence and documents include, but are not limited to, memorandums, letters, forms, and reports. Responsibility includes proper assembly, arrangement, grammar, and spelling of all types of documents and reports.
2. Schedule appointments and meetings for the Culture & Heritage Director. Handle calendar based upon personal knowledge of workload and current issues of importance. Reschedule appointments when necessary.
3. Organize and maintain files of all Culture & Heritage Department records; e.g. letters, memos, forms, reports, etc.
4. Organize and maintain grant files and filing system for budget information, including a computerized filing system for the Culture & Heritage Department.
5. Create and managing Culture & Heritage Department budgets.
6. Oversee scheduling and arrangements of departmental staff meetings, in-service training, etc.
7. Ensure support functions are performed for the Culture & Heritage staff or Tribal Committees, as directed. This includes, but is not limited to, processing correspondence and reports and making necessary arrangements for conferences, meetings, and/or travel.
8. Plan and coordinate the annual functions of the Department (c'waam Ceremony, Culture Camp, Root Digging) including, but not limited to maintaining files (paper and electronic), ordering supplies, scheduling and supervising staff and volunteers, reconciling records, and drafting project reports.
9. Perform bookkeeping duties including receipt and safekeeping of monies, requisitions of funds, payment of invoices, and maintenance of cuff accounts.
10. Perform clerical support and bookkeeping duties for special projects, as needed.
11. Creating billing invoices for numerous projects and deposit funds into necessary department accounts.
12. Make copies and distribute Culture & Heritage Department information to the Tribal public.

13. Oversee the needs of the Culture & Heritage Department. Responsibilities include obtaining services for and the scheduling of office maintenance and repair; handle office space needs for the department.

14. The incumbent will be called upon to accomplish other tasks within their scope of work.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

Work is performed under the direct supervision of the Culture & Heritage Director. Work is assigned in terms of departmental objectives. The Director assists with unusual situations which do not have clear precedents or when clarification or interpretation of organization policy is in question.

Employee works independently toward established objectives, sometimes adapting or modifying standards to meet variations in controlling conditions; resolves problems on the basis of past precedents; exercises judgment in interpreting guidelines and applicability; ensures deadlines are met.

Employee plans and carries out various stages of a project by selecting and using approved methods and techniques as appropriate.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES
