CLASSIFICATION: Management, Regular, Full-Time

LOCATION: Education & Employment Department
Administration
501 S. Chiloquin Blvd
Chiloquin, OR 97624

BACKGROUND: P.L. 101-630 level

POSITION OBJECTIVES

The primary purpose of this position is to promote educational achievement and cultural awareness for eligible American Indian students. The incumbent will plan, organize, and oversee the Johnson O' Malley and the Maqlaqs s?ayooga Afterschool Program for youth in kindergarten through twelfth grade. Promote physical fitness, health and wellness and cultural awareness for eligible American Indian/Alaskan Native students. This position also provides oversight and staff support for youth programming.

Additional responsibilities include overseeing and supporting The Klamath Tribes' Youth Engagement Specialists and the Klamath Tribal Youth Resource Team including implementation and evaluation of youth led strategies in the areas of youth leadership, mental health promotion, alcohol & drug prevention efforts, family engagement, youth social issues, connections to cultural learning opportunities, opportunities for talent expression and promotion of education.

This position will require collaboration with other departments and Tribal youth programs. The work includes various responsibilities, requiring someone who can work independently with minimal supervision to ensure timely, accurate and efficient workflow in accordance with office policies and standards. The work often involves supervision of children and staff support.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Plan quarterly meetings between The Klamath Tribes programs serving youth to review grant and/or program objectives; including review of implementation plans, strategies, and services provided in the community.
2. Effectively communicate with school districts within the service area to collaborate on education related activities and as applicable within the scope of the Johnson O' Malley program.
3. Maintain student files with comprehensive case notes, file entries, and appropriate records regarding services provided, clientele, and student progress. This includes, but is not limited to, identifying students below grade level in math, science, and language arts for tutorial services.
4. Plan, develop, and implement cultural lessons/activities outside of the classroom as field trips and student incentives. This requires review and budget approval by the Department Director.
5. Provide program management and staff guidance with activity planning, including: field trips for After School Program, Early Release Day, and End of the Year Celebration Event.
6. Effectively communicate the Education and Employment Department and the After School Program information to the public.
7. Identify students eligible for Johnson O'Malley Services and the Maqlaqs s?ayooga After School Program.
8. Record student progress in Participation Activity Log (PAL). Request a copy of each assigned student's report card to track student improvement.
9. Establish positive rapport and have ability to work with students, families, Tribal programs and school staff.
10. Instruct staff on how best to assist with projects or program activities and assist with the After School Program.

11. Perform receptionist duties on an as needed basis. This includes receiving incoming telephone calls and directing them to appropriate personnel. Other duties would include filing, photocopying, typing letters from rough draft, reports and other documents as assigned.
12. Establish and maintain an effective filing and record keeping system. Meet with supervisor, as required or necessary, to discuss any and all changes, plans, or new activities within the JOM Program.
13. Directly oversee the full development, implementation, and evaluation of the Tribal Youth Resource Team including hosting resources meetings, promotion, agency training, standard operating procedures, referrals, and privacy, per the Klamath Tribes Tribal Youth Resource Team Council Resolution.
14. Ensure that Klamath Tribes Youth Council is actively involved in carrying out prevention messaging, by collaborating with Klamath Tribal health & Family Services Prevention and Health Education Departments on campaigns and events.
15. Monitor the Klamath Tribes Youth programming budgets, including periodic financial reports to monitor spending
16. Maintain positive, ongoing relationships with county schools and teachers to oversee truancy issues as well as attendance by at risk students. Conduct home visits to encourage regular school attendance.
17. Like all employees of the Klamath Tribes, the incumbent will be called upon to accomplish other tasks that may not be directly related to this position, but are integral to the Klamath Tribes' broader functions, including but not limited to, assisting during Tribal sponsored cultural, traditional, or community events that enable the successful operation of programs and practices of The Klamath Tribes as aligned with The Klamath Tribes' Mission Statement. Some of these tasks may be scheduled outside of regular work hours, if necessary.
