BACKGROUND: Comprehensive

POSITION OBJECTIVES

Under the direction of the Grant Compliance Officer, the Grant Accountant is responsible for accounting, compliance, and financial management of all grants and contracts awarded to The Klamath Tribes. The Grant Accountant will ensure all grants/contract financial operations are compliant with applicable regulations (including OMB Uniform Guidance, 2 CFR 200), Tribal and funder policies, and that budgets and expenses are accurately recorded and monitored through the MIP accounting system. The incumbent will co-supervise the Grant Accounting Specialist and collaborate across departments to facilitate effective, compliant grant and contract management.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Responsible for establishing, monitoring, and performing all financial aspects of grant and contract awards from federal, state, local, and private entities, including set-up, budgeting, expense tracking, and close-out in the MIP accounting system.
2. Serve as the primary point of contact for all grant-related financial matters, liaising between finance, program teams, and grantors.
3. Review grant and contract proposals, budgets, and cost allocation plans for allowability, allocability, and appropriate documentation.
4. Ensure all grant activities comply with OMB 2 CFR 200 Uniform Guidance, funder-specific requirements, and the Klamath Tribes' financial policies and internal controls; maintain up-to-date knowledge of such regulations.
5. Prepare timely and accurate financial reports for grantors, auditors, and Tribal management, including budget-to-actual reports, requests for reimbursement, and closeout packages.
6. Reconcile grant and contract accounts, monitor spending, proactively identify and communicate potential compliance or budget risks to supervisors and program managers.
7. Collaborate with Payroll & Benefits Specialist and accounting staff to ensure personnel and other expenses are correctly allocated to grant awards; process and file all related records according to Tribal policy and record retention schedules.
8. Assist and help train program managers, directors, and other staff working with grant funds on grant compliance and budgeting best practices.
9. Prepare schedules and documentation for annual audits, grantor reviews, and internal compliance checks; address audit findings timely and implement corrective actions.
10. Maintain organized and comprehensive grant files, including budgets, reports, correspondence, and supporting documentation.
11. Co-supervise the Grant Accounting Specialist (alongside Grant Compliance Officer), directing grant administration workflow and activities as appropriate.
12. Work as a member of the Finance Office, undertaking other duties and tasks as assigned to support the mission of The Klamath Tribes, including occasional involvement in Tribal cultural, traditional, or community events which may occur outside of normal work hours.

13. Like all employees of the Klamath Tribes, the incumbent will be called upon to accomplish other tasks that may not be directly related to this position, but are integral to the Klamath Tribes' broader functions, including but not limited to, assisting during Tribal sponsored cultural, traditional, or community events that enable the successful operation of programs and practices of The Klamath Tribes as aligned with The Klamath Tribes' Mission Statement. Some of these tasks may be scheduled outside of regular work hours, if necessary.

SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

The Grant Compliance Officer is the immediate supervisor for this position and will assign, monitor, and evaluate performance according to established policies and procedures. The Grants Accountant works independently on daily assignments, resolving questions as they arise. When faced with unusual, new, or complex issues, the Grant Accountant consults with the Grant Compliance Officer for direction. Work is reviewed for accuracy, compliance, and timeliness.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES

- Knowledge of or ability to quickly learn applicable Tribal, federal, and state grant/contracting guidelines, including 2 CFR 200 Uniform Guidance, funding agency rules, and cost principles.
- Familiarity with accounting and reporting requirements for federal grants, tribal funds, and contracts; strong understanding of indirect cost allocation.
- Proficiency in the use of MIP (Abila) Accounting System or similar nonprofit/tribal fund accounting software (required).
